Background

Divine Mercy College aims to bring education and faith together, in partnership with family, church and the school community. We aim to provide a quality Catholic education that is focused on the core values of faith, academics, service and personal development from preschool and throughout high school to influence a rapidly changing world in a collaborative approach with parents, caregivers and volunteers to enable our students to be well educated and lead happy successful lives who make contributions to local and global communities.

Aim of this Code

Divine Mercy College staff work to a Code of Conduct and the students have a student handbook in which they abide too. This document aims to provide similar guidelines for parents. Specifically, this Parent and Volunteer Code of Conduct is intended to: 1. provide a set of general principles to guide parents, caregivers and volunteers in their interaction with staff, students and other parents/visitors; 2. communicate the School's expectation as to how parents, caregivers and volunteers conduct themselves when on the School grounds or at School events; and 3. explain how parents, caregivers and volunteers can direct their concerns.

Applicability of the Code

This policy applies to all adults including parents, guardians, step-parents, grandparents, extended family, caregivers and any other volunteers while involved in activities or communication related to Divine Mercy College. For this policy, the term "parent" refers to all those as listed above.

Ethical Conduct

Parents play a key role in the education of their children and should act in the best interests of students, their families, staff and the School community. The School values its diverse community and respects the rights, beliefs and practices of individuals and their families. Parents are students' most significant role models. Accordingly, the School expects a high standard of personal behaviour from parents when they are on School grounds, attending events or communicating with staff or other students. For example:

- Refraining from engaging in malicious or judgmental gossip (either directly or online) and ensuring that anything they say about others is fair and truthful.
- Refraining from actions and behavior that constitutes bullying, harassment, discrimination or vilification.
- Refraining from offensive, insulting or derogatory language or conduct. This includes wearing clothing with offensive language or insignia.

Parents are expected to ensure that physical contact with students is appropriate given the age of, and relationship with the student such that questions of impropriety do not arise. Whilst interaction between students can be unruly it is not appropriate to discipline another parents' child whilst on school grounds, unless there is a reasonable health and safety concern. Physical contact should be avoided unless there is a reasonable health and safety concern. In some circumstances parents are required by law to advise the School of areas of potential conflict, such as parenting and family court orders.

The School expects parents to behave lawfully on School grounds and observe the terms of any order, obligation or undertaking they may be subject to. What parents can expect from a staff member if communication becomes inappropriate (including over the top communication when it can be deemed harassment) in cases where a parent does not interact civilly with staff, either in person in or outside of the school grounds, during a phone call, or via email, the staff member may take one of the following actions:
